

TALKING POINTS ON 100 DAYS OF HOUSE REPUBLICANS' FAILED PARTISAN INVESTIGATIONS

April 2023

Key Point: The first 100 days of MAGA Republicans' control of the House have been an embarrassing disaster. Rather than focusing on the real issues Americans care about, Committee Chairs like James Comer and Jim Jordan have focused on baseless conspiracy theories and Trump-style political attacks against President Biden and his family. There is no limit to how low they will stoop in their attempts to maintain MAGA control and help Donald Trump - all so they can enact their extreme agenda. This includes inviting extremist witnesses to testify including conspiracy theorists, election deniers, and even one witness who was endorsed by the KKK. Even their fellow Republicans have agreed that these hearings have been failed political stunts.

Toplines

- These investigations are nothing more than political stunts, designed by MAGA Republicans to undermine President Biden in order to get more power for themselves, push their extreme agenda, and help Donald Trump. The American people agree, with a recent poll showing 54% of Americans say these investigations are just political stunts and a resounding 86% of voters agree with the statement that they want their elected leaders to stop playing partisan games and work together to solve their problems. If these Republicans succeed in their political stunts, they will use their power to take away our fundamental rights, like the right to vote and the right to have an abortion.
- The MAGA politicians pushing these investigations have no credibility and cannot be trusted to conduct legitimate oversight. They spent years ignoring the Trump family's numerous conflicts of interest and corrupt financial dealings with our foreign adversaries. They have lost even more of the American people's trust in the first 100 days in power. Oversight Chair James Comer all but admitted outright to stealing a server and leaking its contents as well as abandoning investigations into whether Trump profited improperly during his presidency. They have already announced plans to weaponize their committees in retaliation for their leader, Donald Trump, being legitimately charged by the Manhattan District Attorney for falsifying business records.

- These investigations have been embarrassing failures for James Comer, Jim Jordan, and their fellow MAGA Republicans. Jim Jordan was exposed as a fraud with his so-called whistleblowers, undermining the whole basis of his Weaponization subcommittee. House Republicans held multiple hearings on the “Twitter files” alleging censorship of conservatives and failed to prove anything, but multiple members did waste time airing personal grievances over their banned Twitter accounts. Their long-promised “smoking gun” on Hunter Biden has yet to appear. Once Fox News hosts start scoffing at the lack of evidence of any wrongdoing, you know James Comer and Jim Jordan have missed the mark.
- House Republicans have given support to extremists, conspiracy theorists, election deniers, and racists. It is no wonder that these hearings and their investigations have been widely panned – even by fellow Republicans – as a disastrous failure. The fact that House Republicans have repeatedly elevated these witnesses further emphasizes that they are more focused on scoring cheap political shots than helping the American people.
- They have shown a blatant disregard for the rule of law and continue their defense of the January 6th assault on our Capitol. MAGA House Republicans were not content with just defending the attack on our Capitol and attempting to obstruct the January 6th Select Committee’s investigation last session and have recently announced a so-called investigation into the insurrection themselves. It is clear they are not interested in the truth after Jim Jordan and Kevin McCarthy refused to comply with subpoenas from the January 6th Committee previously. A group of House Republicans even visited January 6th defendants and insurrectionists who are being held in the DC Jail.
