

TALKING POINTS ON HOUSE REPUBLICANS' JANUARY 6

INVESTIGATION PROBE

March 9, 2023

Key Point: The planned MAGA Republican investigation into January 6 and the select committee is a blatant attempt to whitewash one of the darkest days in our country's history since the Civil War. These announced investigations are clearly an attempt to justify the conspiracy to overturn the election, the attacks on law enforcement, and the violence of January 6, 2021, in addition to hiding MAGA Republicans' own involvement in the plot.

Toplines:

- An investigation into January 6th by MAGA Republicans is designed to rewrite history and hide their involvement in the violence that took place that day. MAGA Republicans want to hurt Democrats and President Biden. They are desperate to hide their involvement by writing a false narrative to hide the truth of the criminal conspiracy and the violence that took place on January 6.
- Extremist MAGA Republicans, Trump supporters, and election deniers will be running the investigations into the insurrection they supported. The MAGA Republicans running the investigation are the same ones who ignored subpoenas about their own involvement in the violence that occurred that day. If they really cared about investigating January 6, the five House Republicans subpoenaed by the committee would come forward and share the information they know.
- This charade is an attack on law enforcement, our country, and our democracy. The party that claims to support law enforcement is trying to sweep a violent insurrection that injured 140 law enforcement officers under the rug. MAGA House Republicans are putting this political stunt on behalf of Donald Trump above our democracy and the American people.

- By launching these investigations, MAGA House Republicans are supporting violence and insurrection. They are making heroes out of violent insurrectionists who vandalized the Capitol, defecated and urinated in its hallways, targeted the Speaker of the House and Vice President for execution, injured 140 police officers, and tried to stop the peaceful transfer of power. The fact that MAGA House Republicans are focusing on giving aid and comfort to criminals shows that they have no credibility and cannot be trusted to conduct fair oversight.
- These investigations are part of a broader MAGA effort in support of the violence on January 6th. Marjorie Taylor Greene has announced a visit to those charged or convicted of violence and attacks on police officers. Trying to turn the attackers into victims. Speaker McCarthy gave 41,000 hours of security camera footage to Tucker Carlson so Fox News could continue its propaganda campaign. MAGA Republicans only care about avoiding accountability and justifying the attack.
